Sometimes I want a quick snack or to accompany lunch, and this is a perfect solution, with the added benefit of being all-natural. This was perfect for the kids and I and keeps us all healthy all day long! This is one of the only times my husband and I have not worked together on a recipe. I'm not sure we have the same taste buds, and he is a total food snob, so it was a nice change for all of us. This was delicious and the kids couldn't get enough of it. Ingredients: 1.5 lbs. ground beef (I use 6oz of lean ground beef) 1 bag leaf spinach 1 large onion, chopped 2 cloves garlic, minced 1/2 tsp. cayenne pepper 1/2 tsp. dried thyme 1/4 tsp. cumin 1/4 tsp. salt 3/4 cup (1/4 c.) all-purpose flour 1-2 cups boiling water 1 packet of onion soup mix (recipe for this below) Directions: 1. Brown the ground beef in a skillet and drain the excess fat. 2. While the ground beef is cooking, heat a little oil in another skillet over medium heat and saute the onion until soft. Add the garlic, cayenne, thyme, cumin, and salt. Cook for about 5 minutes, or until the garlic and spices begin to release their flavor. Stir in the flour and cook for a few minutes, until the mixture starts to turn a darker color. 3. Add the boiling water and stir. Increase the heat to medium high and stir constantly until the mixture has thickened and has simmered for about a minute. Stir in the Onion Soup Mix. When the beef is done and the onions and garlic are tender, stir it into the soup. Cook until heated through. Put the flour, baking powder, salt, egg and butter in a bowl and use a fork to mix them. Add the milk slowly and stir until it comes together as a soft ball. Directions: 1. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees. 2. Spray an 8 x 8 pan with cooking spray or brush it with melted shortening. 3.
